

Press release / 19 October 2022

ImPulsTanz: Application start for the education and training programmes 2023

After a highly successful festival summer 2022, ImPulsTanz is pleased to network and invite the international dance world to Vienna once again in 2023. In addition to ATLAS – create your dance trails and danceWEB, the continuing education programme ImPacT, which is dedicated to the intensive exchange of students and experienced dance professionals, is offered. In addition, the DanceAbility Teacher course is held for the ninth time already, aimed at those teaching integrative groups in the field of movement arts.

Information on the education and training programmes is now online at www.impulstanz.com/education!

ATLAS – create your dance trails is a five-week training programme that offers young artists with first choreographic experience and mid-career artists a dynamic environment for their personal and artistic development. It addresses two central needs: on the one hand, to have a studio available for research and piece development, and on the other, to gain new input through individual workshop programmes, visits of international productions and exchange with artists from over 100 countries as well as through peer-to-peer exchange within the group. The programme is accompanied by performer and dramaturg Angélique Willkie, who worked with Alain Platel and Sidi Larbi Cherkaoui, amongst others, and currently holds the professorship of contemporary dance at Concordia University in Montreal, Canada.

ATLAS – create your dance trails: 5 July to 9 August 2023

Application deadline: 15 February 2023

Information and application: www.impulstanz.com/atlas

Every year danceWEB offers young dancers and choreographers from all over the world a five-week further education in the field of contemporary dance and performance within the ImPulsTanz – Vienna International Dance Festival. The project includes more than 200 workshops and research projects as well as up to 100 performances, artistic accompaniment by maker and performer Clara Furey and a unique platform that brings together international students, choreographers, companies, journalists, producers, teachers and visitors in Vienna.

danceWEB: 5 July to 9 August 2023

Application: Applications are open from 25 October 2022. The application deadline is 15 December 2022, 12:00 p.m. (CET).

Information: www.impulstanz.com/danceweb

ImPacT welcomes individual dance students and groups for a fortnight at ImPulsTanz – aiming to connect the participants with the professional international dance world. In addition to workshops and performances, the academy offers discussions with festival artists and networking events. Furthermore, the students are accompanied by dance researcher Kerstin Kussmaul.

ImPacT: 9 July to 24 August 2023

Application deadline: 31 May 2023

Information and registration: www.impulstanz.com/impact

Led by Alito Alessi and Connie Vandarakis, ImPulsTanz offers the four-week DanceAbility Teacher course. This course is designed for people who want to teach movement arts to inclusive groups and learn about a model for fostering inclusive communities. The focus is on concepts as well as exercises in movement studies and improvisation, planning and conducting classes, and leading performance projects.

DanceAbility Teacher Certification: 2 to 28 July 2023

Application deadline: 31 May 2023

Information and application: www.impulstanz.com/dact